Oklahoma is #2 in incarceration in the world.

We used to be #1. If it weren't for the advocates and service providers in this booklet, we still would be.

African Americans make up 26% of Oklahoma's prison population, but are only 7.8% of the total population of the state. Oklahoma has the highest per capita rate of African Americans in prison in the United States.

Native American and LatinX populations are also over-represented in Oklahoma's criminal legal system.

Oklahoma's criminal sentences for drug crimes are 79% longer than surrounding states.

Our property crime sentences are 70% longer than surrounding states.

We must do better. Oklahoma needs you.
